

Year 4 Homework

Set: 01.10.26

Due 05.10.26

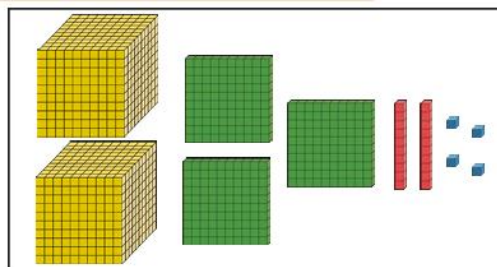

This week there has been a story set for you on MyOn to read, please complete the maths questions and the fill the gap activity for spellings. Please continue to read your AR books at home and at school.

Please remember to write the answers to your homework in your homework book.

Complete the sentences for each representation.

- 1) There are _____ thousands, _____ hundreds, _____ tens and _____ ones.

The number is _____.

- 2) There are _____ thousands, _____ hundreds, _____ tens and _____ ones.

The number is _____.

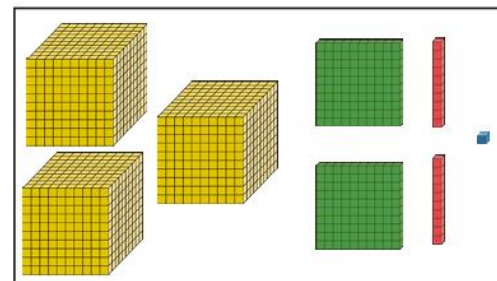

Th	H	T	O
1000 1000 1000 1000	100 100 100 100 100	10 10	1 1

- 3)

Abi

This is my number represented in base ten.

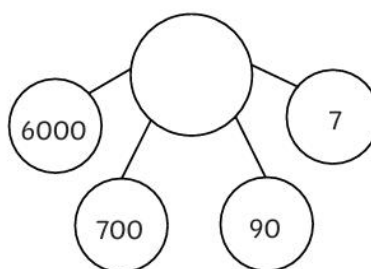

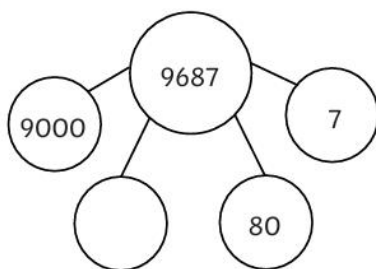

Which of these is Abi's number?

3221

3431

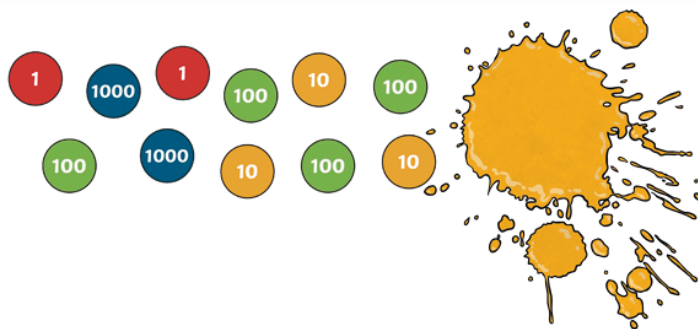

3521

- 4) Fill in the missing numbers on the part-whole models.

5)

Elena has represented the number 3782 using place value counters. Some of her counters have been covered up. What could they be?

6)

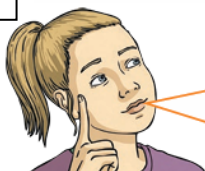

Complete the place value chart so that it shows the number 5903.

Th	H	T	O
1000 1000	100 100
1000	100 100

CHALLENGE (Optional)

7)

Emily has represented the number 8554 using place value counters.

If I add two more 100 counters, I will have represented the number 8574.

Emily

Th	H	T	O
1000 1000	100 100	10 10	1 1
1000 1000	100 100	10 10	1 1
1000 1000	100	10
1000 1000

Do you agree with Emily's statement? Explain why.

Independent

Words with the prefix 'in-' meaning 'not'

To be able to segment words into the correct syllables and phonemes

To spell with the prefix 'in-' meaning 'not'

2.7

Write the correct word for each sentence.

incurable

invisible

indefinite inelegant

inability

The wind is _____, but you can still feel it.

He had a very _____ fall when he tripped over a stone.

She is suffering from an _____ skin disease.

We will be living here for an _____ amount of time.

My _____ to tie my shoelaces is a problem after PE.